SGA July Newsletter

Gentlemen,

Well, the heat of the summer is upon us and work on the Oaks course is proceeding well. I know we are all anxious for the opening of the Oaks in September and we return to a normalized SGA schedule. Just a reminder, spots for the Interclub tournaments fill up very fast. So if you wish to play in them, make sure you sign-up as soon as registration opens. See below dates.

The 2019 SGA Individual and Team Match Play Tournaments are now underway. Most of the June matches are completed, but a couple of matches still need to be played. If you have not completed your June match, please try to make arrangements as soon as possible, so that the July matches won't be delayed. If you have advanced to the next round and the bracket's below do not reflect the completed match, please let me know so I can correct and update the bracket.

We hope that everyone is enjoying their summer and that you all have a great 4th as we celebrate our independence and freedom. SGA has a number of members that are veterans. We thank you for your service!

Last month we told you that the SGA will be supporting Folds of Honor. For those of you that don't know, Folds of Honor is an organization that provides scholarships to the families of fallen soldiers with over 90% of contributions going to those scholarships. The SGA Board has been in contact with Folds of Honor and will be meeting with the NC Chapter Board Member in the coming weeks to determine how we can support them as it relates to golf. The NRCC Philanthropic Committee is also supporting Folds of Honor and we will be working in tandem with them to provide a cohesive effort. We are very excited about this organization and wish to thank SGA member Cliff Disbrow for bringing the idea to the SGA to support a great cause and for recommending Folds of Honor.

Scott Atcheson, SGA President

If there is anything I can do to make your SGA experience better, please don't hesitate to ask.

Sincerely,

Chris Brumbaugh, PGA
