SGA June Newsletter

Gentlemen,

The 2019 SGA Individual and Team Match Play brackets are out. To view the brackets, click on the links below. Also, a copy has been posted on the SGA board in the Men's Locker Room. If you would like the Golf Shop to make a scorecard for your match, please add a note to the tee sheet stating that you are playing a match and the Golf Shop will make a card for you. After your match is over, please write the winner's name(s) on the SGA board and turn in your scorecard to me in the Golf Shop. Also, because we have an odd number of flights, Scott Kirkland and I drew cards, and the lucky or unlucky flights (depending on how you look at it) will play one more match to get into the semifinals. Good Luck!

As many of you know, NRCC has developed a philanthropic committee to support certain charities and causes. I have been approached by an SGA member (who has to remain anonymous) for the SGA to consider supporting Folds of Honor. As we have a number of Vets of the SGA roster, this is an excellent idea! Details on how we plan to support Folds of Honor will follow in next month's e-mail update. If anyone has ideas or suggestions, please let me know.

Scott Atcheson, SGA President

If there is anything I can do to make your SGA experience better, please don't hesitate to ask.

Sincerely,

Chris Brumbaugh, PGA
