SGA July Newsletter

Gentlemen,

Round one of the SGA Individual and Team Match Play Tournaments have been completed and ready for round two matches to begin. I have updated the brackets with round two matches. To view them, click on the quick links below. I hope everyone is enjoying playing tournament golf again and good luck to those who have advanced to round two.

At this time, we are still uncertain about the CASMGA events for this fall, so please continue to sign up for interclubs, and I will notify everyone as to their status once it's has been determined.

So far we have held two SGA "Play with the Pro" events and will continue to have a chance to play once a month. If you would like an opportunity to play with your golf staff, please sign up for one of the upcoming matches in July, August or September. Dates are listed below.
