SGA November Newsletter

Gentlemen,

As most of you know, we had to cancel all of our shotguns, Interclubs, and SGA Championship tournaments this year due to Covid-19. However, we still had a few shining moments in this SGA season. Fortunately, we were still able to have our SGA Individual and Team Match Play tournaments and the Play with the Pro events.

Our individual match play tournament was decided last week when Kent Geer defeated Howard Doran to become this year's individual match play champion. The team match play event concluded a couple of days ago when Mark Manning and Scott Miller won over the team of Keith Ricks and Buddy Perry. Congratulations to all the winners!

In addition to golf shop credit, the winners of the match play tournaments will have their names engraved on the trophy that resides in the Men's Locker Room.

Our SGA Play with the Pro Tournament ended with the team of Morgan Johns, Chuck Kavcsak, John Lennon, and Rick Rollinson leading the way with an impressive score of 124. Way to go, guys!
